

By Laura Latham

Rooms with a view

Maribor, Slovenia

Price: £40,000
Agent: Slovenian Properties
Tel: 02392 632 305
They say: Very pretty cottage, newly renovated and situated in the country's wine region. The property, which is built in traditional style, has one bedroom, kitchen and living room plus wonderful views.

We say: A sweet little pied à terre in some truly stunning countryside. The house measures a tiny 60sq m but the sweeping vistas over vineyards and mountains will bring a sense of space.

History lesson

Brno, Czech Republic

Price: £68,000
Agent: Czech Point 101
Tel: 020-7019 6326
They say: Spacious two-bedroom apartment measuring 82sq m in the downtown of district of Brno. The property is recently renovated and includes a new kitchen, flooring and paintwork.
We say: A nice property for a nice price. Brno is an attractive, historic city and much more affordable than Prague. The apartment is well renovated, is five minutes walk from the main city square and is in a lovely heritage building.

High-flyer

Eagle Valley, Slavsk, Ukraine

Price: from £25,000
Agent: Erna Low
Tel: 020-7590 1624
They say: The first off-plan resort in the country, Eagle Valley offers 88 apartments plus indoor pool, gym and private forest park in a stunning ski resort.
We say: Slavsk is popular with eastern European skiers and there's good letting potential here. The Carpathian Mountains offer a beautiful, wild setting.

